

New Arrival-the first Preserve Baby. Meet Chico born in April. While there will be few babies born on the Preserve based upon the darting program to manage the herd size, Chico's Mom came to the preserve a few months short of delivery. Chico is a colt with a white blaze to match Mama. He is very healthy and doing well. Already munching hay and frolicking with some of the older colts and filly residents of the preserve.

