

CAPTAIN MIDNIGHT

Captain Midnight or the Black Stallion as he is often called by observers for his resemblance to the famous book and movie horse is as beautiful as his namesake. Because of his good looks and how his black coat glistens in the sun he is often photographed.

He was born in the spring of 2000 to a mare that was taken in the in 2001 BLM round up where the lead stallion was killed. He was “adopted” by Don Juan’s band and remained with that family until he became mature and struck out on his own in 2002.

Black takes great delight in staying just out of reach of Don Juan, but within sight to keep his adopted “Dad” on his toes. This year he “stole” Bitty Baby and her foal Cheyenne from Don Juan’. Those “boys” are so competitive. Both are now safe from capture and living on the San Felipe Preserve.
